CONTRACTS LET FOR TWO FINE BUILDINGS IN DIXON

ZOUNDS! EGAD! THIS NEWS WILL STARTLE YOU!

Lindy Gives Up Flying to Enter Movies—Big Bill Fraternizes With King George—Coolidge Chooses to Run—John D. Now One of Connie Mack's Promising Youngsters
Tom Walsh on Vaudeville Stage—Mayor Jimmy Walker Fired

This series of extraordinary news photographs, gathered from the five corners of the world, reflect better than words can express the silly trend of the day's events.

1—JIMMY WALKER ON TIME FOR WORK. James E. Walker, former mayor of New York, who recently accepted a position with a subway construction company, has been discharged. Officials said Walker insisted on reporting for work hours ahead of time and several times was arrested for loitering about the excavation in the gray dawn of morning. His dinner pail empty, Jimmy is shown here on his way to a Tammany banquet, where he hopes to get a handout.

2—BIG BILL DINES KING GEORGE. This was snapped by the photographer as Mayor William Hale Thompson's reception to King George of England was just getting under way. As the cavalcade progressed down Michigan boulevard, Chicago, the camera man couldn't resist getting this charming shot of friendliness into print. The pair are shown in the royal coach, which was brought over for the occasion.

3—LINDY IN "LOVE'S O' LINDY." This is a still from the new film, "Love's O' Lindy," now being taken in the coast Paramount studios. Colonel Lindbergh, you know, recently gave up flying as too dangerous, and is in the movies now. "I'm just doing this for all I can get out of it," he told the camera man just after this charming daguerotype was taken.

4—WALSH SIGNS VAUDEVILLE CONTRACT. Senator Walsh of Montana, bored by the ease with which he has pulled unexpected things from Senator investigations, has answered the call of the footlights. The bunny he's shown taking from the hat he has named "Harry Sinclair." It knows all kinds of tricks. The Senator is shown in his usual jolly vein, a hearty laugh shaking his sides.

5—COOLIDGE CHOOSES TO RUN. President Calvin Coolidge, tired of keeping cool, at last has chosen to run—in C. C. Pyle's humor column. When he told C. C. Pyle (right) that he chose to run, the great impresario had a doctor look him over. There they are, you can see for yourself.

6—JOHN D. TO HURL FOR MACKS. Answering the demands of his many friends, John D. Rockefeller has decided to do one more year on the old diamond. He signed a five-year contract to pitch for Connie Mack's Philadelphia Young Men's Club, on which Rookies Cobb and Speaker are expected to star this year. Here he is shown oozing a sinker over third base. Mr. Rockefeller told the correspondents he was doing it because he needed the money.

7—CLARA BOW SETS FAST PACE. Mortified astounded and shocked by a recent visit to the beach where several young women appeared in one-piece bathing costumes, Clara Bow, sizzling mamma of the movies, has sewed herself up in the dignified raiment in which she is shown hiding above. Clara says the younger generation is getting positively a little too rampant to suit Grandma Bow. Clara is just the plain, demure girl she always was—the films haven't changed her a bit.

8—On or about April 1, it becomes the business of a vast number of waggish people to practice innocent impostures on the unsuspecting neighbors, says the learned old philosopher, Lyander. Sometimes the opportunity is taken by ultra-jocular persons to carry out some extensive April fool hoax upon society. If this be treason, make the most of it.

MODEL GARAGE; COUNTRY CLUB TO BE BUILT

Early Indications of Progress in DIXON are Evident

Close on the heels of the successful forward-looking campaign of the DIXON Chamber of Commerce, in which over 350 members are now enrolled, come announcements indicating further progress and activity in DIXON this year—the awarding of contracts for two fine new buildings, the total cost of which will run well into six figures, being made public today.

W. A. Schuler, former alderman and owner of the DIXON Home Lumber Co., the Hotel DIXON building and other DIXON interests, has announced the awarding of the contract to M. D. Smith & Sons for a strictly modern and fireproof garage, building at 321 23 First street, the excavation for which will be completed next week, and on which actual construction work will begin April 8.

For Handsome Building
The new building, which will be just west of the City Steam Laundry, will be 52 by 110 feet, and will be of stalwart construction—basement and one story. It will be constructed of reinforced concrete with hard faced pressed brick on south and west fronts. The floor will be of reinforced concrete and the roof will be supported by steel trusses. Steel lath will be used throughout and the plate glass fronts will be set in copper. The show room at the front of the building will be 52 by 30 feet and will provide a model setting for display of fine automobiles.

When completed the building, for which N. S. Spencer of Chicago is the architect, will be one of the finest fire-proof garages in this part of the state.

For DIXON Country Club
The Board of Directors of the DIXON Country Club has awarded the contract for the new club house building to Schafer & Olson, the contractors who are building new buildings at DIXON State Colony. They have an organized force of workmen and just at the present time are in position to proceed very rapidly with the Country Club building, which possibly explains the fact that they were low bidders for this contract.

Mr. Schafer, in conference with the board and the building committee yesterday, stated that he would begin operations early next week. As the new structure will involve a partial wrecking of the old building, (Continued on page 2)

FORTY HURT IN CRASH OF FAST TRAINS IN OHIO

Pennsylvania Limited in Wreck Near Lima Last Evening

Lima, O., March 31—(AP)—Twenty persons were in hospitals here today, suffering from severe injuries and twenty others were nursing cuts and bruises as the result of a crash of two crack flyers on the Pennsylvania Railroad four miles west of here last night.

The forty injured passengers were riding on the Liberty and Broadway Limited trains, both of them east bound and running about thirty minutes apart.

Shortly after 6 o'clock the Broadway Limited, which was behind schedule, pulled up alongside a signal tower to await orders. A general slick storm over northern Ohio had struck Lima, playing havoc with telephone and leveling telegraph wires until means of communication had been lost.

Running thirty minutes behind the Broadway Limited the Liberty was speeding along at 40 miles an hour, trying to make up time it had lost because of the storm. Apparently the train crew was unaware that the Broadway had been stopped for orders.

The Liberty crashed into the rear end of the first train, telescoping a club car, a mail car and a parlor car and derailing some of its own coaches.

Twenty of the more seriously injured were removed to hospitals here while physicians gave medical attention to the others in the coaches. Henry Strasses, of Fort Wayne, engineer on the Liberty, was probably the most severely injured. He may lose an arm.

The Broadway left Chicago at 12:40 p. m., yesterday.

Forward March for Dixon

YOU AND THE DIXON CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

By Ray S. Kline
President DIXON C. of C.

DIXON citizens have proven by their response in labor, contributions, and enthusiasm that we are assured a real budget for Chamber of Commerce activities.

The goal (350 membership) of the three day Membership Campaign, ending Thursday noon, was reached. The pledge given by all the workers at the Thursday noon luncheon that additional memberships would be secured has been realized and by Monday evening the DIXON Chamber of Commerce will have back of it a group of DIXON Boosters that will prove to the most skeptical that we mean business.

We want it understood that we did not set out to have the biggest membership per capita in the state, but we did have in mind having the finest quality and it is with a great deal of satisfaction that we call your attention to the names of DIXON Boosters who are backing the Chamber of Commerce.

We of course realize that hundreds of Dixon citizens, who for various reasons could not respond with a membership will be just as big Boosters for a bigger and better DIXON as any on the membership list, and (Continued on page 2)

Mrs. Fred Wohnke is Called Friday Night

Mrs. Fred G. Wohnke passed away at her home, 117 Dixon avenue, at 5:30 last evening, death relieving a suffering of several days duration with a complication of ailments. She was born in Kappa, Ill., March 31, 1872 and had been a resident of Dixon for the past 16 years. Besides her husband she is survived by two daughters, Misses Dorothy of Champlain and Milla at home. Funeral services will be conducted Sunday afternoon at 2:30 from the family residence and at 3 o'clock from the First Methodist church. Rev. A. Turley Stephenson officiating and with interment in Oakwood. The obituary will be published later.

ACTIVITY DRY AGENTS CHIEF INTEREST NOW

Overshadow Primaries in Cook County; Many Charges Made

Chicago, March 31—(AP)—Chicago's millions, with their political apathy jarred within the fortnight by bursting bombs and shotgun assassinations, looked today for a possible connection between recent activities of special prohibition agents and the torrid primary election campaign.

"Who's Who" in prohibition enforcement in Chicago has become for the time being a more interesting question than which republican faction will come out in front at the April 10 voting.

The shooting by dry agents Thursday night of William Beatty, Municipal Court Bailiff and worker for the Mayor Thompson-State's Attorney Crowe Republicans, has been followed by Beatty's indictment by a federal grand jury on a charge of resisting an officer. The Beatty case (Continued on page 2)

Two Townships Will Vote on Road Bonds

Two townships of Lee county—Brooklyn and May—will submit two very important bond issue measures to the voters of the respective towns at the election next Tuesday. Supervisor John Banks of Brooklyn township has outlined a road graveling program which calls for a bond issue amounting to $67,000. The proposed improvement in Brooklyn is to be spread in both precincts of the township, providing for 17½ miles in the west precinct and 17½ miles in the east precinct, including the present Meridian Highway improvement.

The project is outlined to connect with the Meridian highway, all of the proposed gravelled roads and the program is the largest road improvement proposition ever undertaken in Brooklyn township.

In May township, a bond issue of $21,000 will be voted upon. Supervisor William Avery has outlined a program of road development in that township which has been needed for years and approximately eight miles have been designated to be gravelled provided the bond issue carries.

Kind Words are Always Welcomed—

DIXON Evening Telegraph:— Esteemed DIXONITES: I wish to express my thought on the unselfish manner in which you have donated your space in the recent campaign, as well as other public movements for the betterment of Dixon.

Surely your contributions stands at the top of the list of all those who are working for unselfish interests and I wish to congratulate you and your paper for the progressive spirit which you have always shown.

I have noticed that whenever DIXON is mentioned that you are putting it in larger type—another splendid idea.

The evening's radio (special) program, another feature for some time. My congratulations and thanks for your efforts, I am sure they are appreciated.

REMUS NOT TO BE LIBERATED FOR SOME TIME

State Moves to Keep Wife-Slayer Locked in Asylum

Lima, Ohio, March 31—(AP)—Declared sane yesterday by the Court of Appeals, George Remus, former bootleg leader and slayer of his wife, today still seemingly had a fight facing him before he is released from the state hospital for the insane here.

The Appellate Court by a two to one decision held him mentally competent and granted him a writ of habeas corpus to liberate him from the insane hospital, where he has been since January 6 after he was acquitted of the murder of his wife on grounds of insanity.

Barriers to his immediate release, however, were immediately erected when E. M. Botkin, Allen county prosecutor, set to work on a motion to the State Supreme Court asking a stay of execution. He planned today to seek a new trial and if that fails announced he would take the motion at once into the Supreme Court.

Efforts to obtain Remus' speedy release on the basis of the court's decision failed yesterday when Botkin (Continued on page 2)

PART OWNER OF HARMON LAND IS NEAR HIS DEATH

"Honest John" Kuntz, Chicago Restaurateur is Ill

The Chicago Herald-Examiner of this morning contained the following story concerning the serious illness of "Honest John" Kuntz, famous restaurant owner, who has a half interest in a section of land in Harmon township, and for whom Attorney H. C. Warner recently instituted a partition suit in the Lee county Circuit Court. Mr. Kuntz is known by many people in this county, who will hope for his ultimate recovery.

"Honest John" Kuntz, famous restaurateur is near death.

The man who made famous the old Kuntz-Remmer restaurant on S. Wabash av. the friend of hundreds of celebrities of the stage and music world, dilettantes, clubmen, politicians, good fellows of the old days, is stricken with pneumonia at his home, 115 S. Walnut av., Arlington Heights.

He is 69 years old. Mr. Kuntz numbered among his friends three immortals—Theodore Roosevelt, Enrico Caruso and John (Continued on page 2)

FUNERAL OF HARMON Woman Held Friday

Mrs. John Mekeel, living north of Harmon, passed away after a lingering illness Wednesday morning at 6:30. She was born in Round Grove township, Whiteside county, Jan. 22, 1863, and was married to John D. Mekeel about thirty-four years. Five children were born to this union, one preceding her in death. Beside her sorrowing husband she leaves to mourn her passing the following children: John Jr., Julius, Mrs. Edward Blackburn, of Harmon; Mrs. James Blackburn, South Dixon; and three brothers, James of Omaha, Neb.; Eugene of Milwaukee; and Henry of Harmon, all of whom were in attendance at the funeral held yesterday morning at St. Flannan's church, Harmon, Rev. Father Thos. Moore, officiating at the services, with interment in the Holy Cross cemetery.

She was a much loved woman, well known throughout the community for her kind nature and deeds.

HENRY FORD AND WIFE TO ENJOY VACATION ABROAD

No Business is Connected With Their Trip Auto Maker Declares

New York, March 31—(AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ford left for Europe today aboard the liner Majestic.

It is the automobile manufacturer's first trip abroad since his famous voyage to Norway on the "Peace Ship" in 1915, which was designed to "get the boys out of the trenches by Christmas."

Mrs. Ford is crossing for the first time.

The Majestic's destination is Southampton, England, and Mr. Ford said his visit would be confined to England, Scotland and Ireland and he didn't think there would be "any business connected with it."

"Oh, we are just going on a little trip, just a little trip," he said when interviewed in the "regal suite" aboard the liner shortly before she sailed at 2:10 a. m. "We have no plans at all. We're just going over and I don't think there will be any business connected with it. My last trip in England was in 1913."

Great Secrecy

Passage had been booked under the name of "Mr. and Mrs. J. Robinson". The greatest secrecy had cloaked all Ford's movements since his arrival in New York yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ford boarded the ship by a private gangway to a lower deck, accompanied by their son Edsel and his wife. Edsel and his wife left the ship shortly after 1 o'clock when their parents retired for the night.

FUNERAL SERVICE OF Mrs. Hardesty Mon.

The funeral of Mrs. Catherine Hardesty, who passed away in Chicago Thursday, will be held Monday afternoon at 3:30 from the Preston chapel, Rev. Lloyd W. Walker, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church officiating and with interment in Oakwood. The deceased is survived by her husband, Guy Hardesty; her father, James St. Clair of Rock Falls; her mother, Mrs. Emma Hinkle of McAllister, Wis.; and one brother John St. Clair of Dixon.

HEFLIN INJECTS "POISON" THEORY IN WILLIS' DEATH

Suggests to Widow of Senator She Have Stomach Test

(Editor's Note.—The story of the sudden death of Senator Frank Willis of Ohio last night will be found on page 6.)

Washington, March 31—(AP)—A suggestion to Mrs. Frank B. Willis that she have the contents of the stomach of Senator Willis of Ohio examined by a competent chemist was made in a telegram sent her today by Senator Hefflin, democrat, Alabama.

Senator Hefflin described the Senator's death as "strange" since he was "so well and strong" and added: "Pardon me for suggesting that you have a competent chemist to examine the contents of his stomach."

President Coolidge sent today his condolences to Mrs. Willis on the death of her husband, extolling the late Senator as an "earnest and effective advocate of causes which he considered just."

NAME TO REMAIN.

Columbus, Ohio, March 31—(AP)—The death of Senator Frank B. Willis, candidate for the republican presidential nomination, will not in any way after the presidential primary, Clarence J. Brown, secretary of state, ruled today. He said Senator Willis' name would remain on the ballot.

EXAMINATION OF FALL EXPECTED TO CLOSE TODAY

Doctor to Take the Aged Former Secretary West at Once

El Paso, Tex., March 31—(AP)—Under direct examination for ten hours, the equivalent of two court days, Albert B. Fall, former Secretary of the Interior, who is giving a deposition detailing his story of the Teapot Dome lease to be used in defense of Harry F. Sinclair charged with Fall of conspiring to defraud the government, today was expected to undergo cross examination.

When last night's session that lasted more than two hours was closed, Fall was exhausted but it was believed that he would be able to be cross examined by Atlee Pomerene, special government prosecutor. The cross examination, however, was not expected to take more than a few hours. There remained about two hours of direct examination.

During the ten hours Fall has been telling his story of the lease which the government charges he gave Sinclair in exchange for the $233,000 in Liberty bonds, part of which came from the Continental Trading Company oil profit bond fund, he has sought to contradict the government's contention and show there was nothing unlawful or unusual about the lease.

Fall's story, which will be read in the District of Columbia Supreme Court during Sinclair's trial, insists that the lease was negotiated in the usual way, chiefly by his subordinates who carried on the deal with J. W. Zevely, representative of Sinclair.

Wm. A. Marteeney Died Last Night

William A. Marteeney passed away at his home, 919 East Chamberlain street last evening at 6:15, death resulting from a long illness with complications. He was born February 14, 1859 and at his death was 69 years, one month and 16 days of age. Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 1:30 from the Preston chapel, Rev. W. W. Marshall, pastor of the Baptist church officiating and with interment in Oakwood. The obituary will be published later.

Weekly Grain

Chicago, Mar. 31—(AP)—Enlarging estimates of crop damage in the eastern half of the United States which wheat belt are attracting world-wide notice.

According to leading trade authorities here, the percentage of abandoned acreage of domestic soft winter wheat is now expected to be possibly the greatest ever known.

Under such conditions, wheat this morning compared with the previous showed 2% to 5c a bushel advance in price, with corn 3/4c to 2 1/2c up, oats varying from 1/4c decline to 1 1/4c gain, and provisions showing a rise of 10 to 30c.

It was reported here today that states east of the Mississippi have lost 5,000,000 acres of winter wheat compared with the area seeded last fall.

Information here is that about 4,000,000 acres of winter wheat in parts of western Kansas and Nebraska and eastern Colorado will need exceptionally good weather to overcome the deficiency of sub-soil moisture.

It is pointed out by authorities that the crop of red winter wheat will not be a large one, and that high premiums for this variety of wheat are in prospect for the coming year.

Visible supplies of domestic corn have started to decrease, with a free movement from Missouri river points to Chicago, largely to go east from here for domestic use.

Some of the new Argentine corn crop is heading toward the seaboard in North Argentina but not yet on a large scale.

Prospects that oats acreage will exceed the government's recent figures are having a good deal to do

Juniors Enjoyed First Hike Friday

The hike yesterday for the Junior gym class of the YMCA was an event which will live long in the memories of the boys who took part. The start was a little delayed because of a few "sleepy-heads" but were under way with Physical Director C. M. Yohn by 10:15. Following the north bank of the river, they hiked to Lowell Park.

It was a beautiful trip because of the snow. Great flocks of wild ducks were seen by the boys, there being probably between five hundred and one thousand in number.

After reaching the park a dandy fire was built, and, oh, boy, such a feed! Bacon, eggs, hot dogs, "everything!"

A dandy snowball fight composed the main afternoon's activities. Several perfect hits were scored, including two in Mr. Yohn's left eye.

A good hot shower and a swim in the Y swimming pool finished a long hard day for the boys, who are looking forward eagerly for Y camp next summer.

has brought federal and police authorities into apparent conflict, due to the action of the raiding agents in preventing police from interfering after Beatty had been shot during a saloon raid.

To Ask Warrants Police indicated they planned to ask warrants against the federal men for shooting Beatty, who is recovering from his wounds.

Mayor Thompson charged the shooting of Beatty to "the Deeneen crowd" — the Republican faction headed by United States Senator Deeneen, which is opposing Thompson candidates at the primaries.

"The federal government can't shoot down citizens in Chicago and get away with it," a Mayor said.

In an interview with The Associated Press Mayor Thompson enumerated the city's virtues and declared that crime has been greatly reduced under his administration.

"We have the best health record of any big city. We have the most wonderful park, playground and school system for children. We have wonderful industries, and they are growing. Business is good in Chicago and getting better," he said.

Claims Crime Dwindles "Crime? sure we have crime. Chicago is just like any other big city. Crime there is and probably always will be, but it is dwindling."

Police were told last night by Albert R. Brunker, a manufacturer friendly to the Deeneen faction, that a threat had been made to bomb his home and kidnap his small daughter if he did not stay out of politics.

A police guard was placed at his home. Circuit Clerk Thomas Wallace, a Thompson candidate for reelection, was another who received a telephone threat that he would be bombed. The Wallace home was bombed in 1921.

The body of the man shot to death and then set afire, which was found on a lonely road Thursday night, was identified by his wife as Charles Adragna, an "alky peddler" and friend of the slain "Diamond Joe" Esposito.

OLD MASTERS

GO PLANT A TREE

Ella Wheeler Wilcox
God, what a joy it is to plant a tree,
And from the fallow earth to watch it rise,
Lift up its emerald branches to the skies
In silent adoration; and to see
Its strength and glory waxing with each Spring;
Yes, 'tis a goodly and gladsome thing,
To plant a tree.

Nature has many marvels; but a tree
Seems more than marvelous. It is divine,
So generous, so tender, so benign,
Not garrulous, like the rivers; and yet free
In pleasant converse with the winds and birds;
Oh! privilege beyond explaining words,
To plant a tree.

Rocks are majestic; but unlike a tree,
They stand aloof and silent. In the roar
Of ocean billows breaking on the shore,
There sounds the voice of turmoil.
But a tree
Speaks even of companionship and rest.

Yea, of all righteous acts, this, this is the best,
To plant a tree.
There is an oak (oh, how I love that tree!)
Which has been thriving for a hundred years;
Each day I send my blessings through the spheres
To one who gave this triple boon to me:
Of growing beauty, singing birds, and shade,
Wouldn't thou win laurels that shall never fade?
Go plant a tree.

Girl Scout Activities:
Resume Last Week;
Schedule of Next

The Girl Scouts of Dixon have enjoyed a very pleasant week. On Monday a very large group enjoyed the swimming pool at the "Y".

On Tuesday the girls made a very thorough visit of both the Reynolds wire plants.

On Friday the girls enjoyed a very instructive inspection of the confectionery department of the Borden plant.

Although there were a large group of the Girl Scouts out of town for the spring vacation, the attendance of these activities was surprisingly high.

Next week the Iris Troop resumes its former meeting day which is Monday, instead of Wednesday at the "Y".

The schedule follows: All troops meeting at the "Y" at 4 o'clock unless otherwise stated.
Monday—Cardinals at Legion Hall at 4.
Iris Troop.
Tuesday—Lily of the Valley Troop, Amis Troop (7:00).
Thursday—Wild Rose Troop.
Friday—Cardinal Troop.

O. E. S. PARLOR CLUB MEETING
The members of the O. E. S. Parlor club will meet Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Masonic Temple. The hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. H. C. Bartholomew, Mrs. William Nixon, Mrs. E. J. Decker, Mrs. Lottie Horton.

Entertainment by Mrs. Heritage Enjoyable

An evening's entertainment of song stories under the auspices of the Women's Relief Corps, was given by Mrs. George C. Heritage of Oak Park, last evening at the Baptist church, and it proved most interesting to an appreciative audience, who were generous with applause.

Many friends took advantage of the opportunity to again greet Dean Heritage and Mrs. Heritage, and to hear her say in her opening remarks, "We are glad to be home, for we always call Dixon home." (Both Prof. and Mrs. Heritage were members of the Dixon College faculty during their residence here and have a large following of friends. Mr. Heritage is now Dean at the Chicago Municipal College, with an attendance of 3,300 students, and he is in charge of a faculty of one hundred teachers.)

Mrs. Heritage had taken the different kinds of songs, the Indian and Negro folk songs, war and patriotic songs, home and love songs, and some of the old familiar hymns, and woven them into a story. She gave the history and authors of some of the songs, and Mrs. Heritage, because of her love for Dixon, and her friends here and for the W. R. C., in which organization she maintains her membership, donated her services for the entertainment the proceeds to be used in the charitable work accomplished by the W. R. C. Mrs. Heritage has given this entertainment at Crown Point, Ind., St. Charles, Ill., Maple Park, and many other places.

Katherine Ballou sang a number of the selections in illustration which proved most entertaining as their singing is always most enjoyable.

The WOMAN'S DAY by ALLENE SUMNER

When Alida Taylor was just a little girl John A. Balfour promised her a nice doll when his ship came in. Just when that was is not known. But Mrs. Alida Taylor Rooney's ship came in a day or so ago when she learned that John Balfour of Africa had left her $850,000.

Chauffeur James F. Curran of Pottsville, Pa., never expected to be rich. But the other day Miss Ermine Elssler, 60, the lady for whom he "chauffeur," left him a half million dollars.

I WONDER
The most interesting thing in the world would be to see just how these two take their fortunes; how ready they are to enjoy unexpected wealth. They are far above average if they know how to utilize it now they have it. Which is the flaw in our education. We emphasize how to make money but devote little time to ways and means to enjoy wealth when it is attained.

NAUGHTY, NAUGHTY!
Two books from England were forbidden entrance to America by the collector of customs in Cleveland, O. The books were "Mother, How Was I Born?" and "Married Love" by Marie Carmichael Stopes, a reputable English physician and obstetrical specialist. When Cleveland's librarian, to whom the books were being sent, protested, the collector merely said that he was acting according to Washington policies, and that his superior had criticized him for being too liberal in his manner of accepting imported merchandise.

Here you have the whole fault of censorship. An official feels he must do something, and picks on a book for its title. If he picks on a sane, scientific necessary medical book and lets in hordes of actually obscene volumes masquerading under harmless titles, he has at least done his duty, thinks he.

TRUE LOVE
Even if Grace Carlyle does weigh 612 pounds and is only 5 feet 6 inches tall, she "got her man." For a license was taken out the other day for Grace Carlyle, 18, to marry Col. John Van Creech, 46, 8 feet 6 inches tall, who weighed a mere 200 plus.

Several interpretations could be read into the romance. First, that middle and old age find youth attractive, whatever the weight. Second, that abnormal physical types look to one another for that understanding and consolation which a normal world refuses. Grace can't recall John about his height and ask him, "how the weather is up there" without drawing a nasty crack or so for her own buxom heft. Best wishes, newlyweds!

Donald C. Steder Marries Miss Howard
Donald C. Steder of Dixon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Steder of Everett street, and Miss Lillie Maud Howard of Amboy were united in marriage at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon at the parsonage to the Methodist church, by the pastor, Rev. A. T. Stephenson. The young couple were attended by his sister, Mrs. Lydia Abell. The young couple have many friends both in Dixon and Amboy and all unite in wishing them happiness.

FINE MUSICAL NUMBERS CHRISTIAN CHURCH
A fine musical number will be given tomorrow evening at the Christian church regular evening service when Schuman's "Trauerlied" will be rendered as a duet for strings. Miss Gertrude Nesbit with the violin, Miss Gertrude Hoffman at the cello, Louis Leydig, pianist and Clinton Fahrney will be at the organ.

A. F. Derr will give a trombone solo "The Palms," at the regular session of the Christian church Bible School Sunday morning.

PROF. HERITAGE AND WIFE MOTORED HERE FRIDAY AFTERNOON
Dean George C. Heritage of the Chicago Municipal College and his wife, motored to Dixon Friday afternoon and were greeted by their many friends who were indeed glad to visit with them again. Last evening at the Baptist church Mrs. Heritage gave a most enjoyable program of song stories for the benefit of the W. R. C. of Dixon. Both Prof. and Mrs. Heritage were members of the Dixon College faculty here some years ago.

Card Party Was Delightful Affair
Mrs. Walter Knack, Mrs. John Kelly, Mrs. Leslie Squier and Mrs. Riley were delightfully entertained with cards Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Knack, the members of the American Legion Auxiliary and friends. There were guests for ten tables and both bridge and five hundred were played. Mrs. Edward Witzleb won high score in bridge and Mrs. Albert Hasselberg received the consolation prize. In 500 Miss Anna Phalen received first prize with Mrs. A. L. Buchanan having the low score. The hostesses served delicious refreshments. The afternoon proved very enjoyable to all present.

COE COLLEGE GIRLS' GLEE CLUB TO SING IN DIXON

The Coe College Girls' Glee Club of Cedar Rapids, Ia., will appear at the Dixon Elks club Thursday evening, April 4, at which time the public will be invited to hear the program to be rendered by this fine organization of young ladies under the direction of Miss Pearl Van Orsdel. A well balanced program has been arranged and an evening of fine entertainment is assured.

Miss Van Orsdel, who directs the club, appeared in Dixon last season and made many friends in the city during her brief visit. She is a graduate of voice and piano from the Drake university conservatory of music and following her graduation, studied three years under private instructors in New York City. She is now voice instructor at the Coe College.

The glee club numbers 28 fine looking young ladies with fine voices. Solos, duets, trios, quartets, sextets, readings and cornet numbers form a program of rare entertainment and it is expected that the lodge hall at the Elks club house will be filled to its capacity for the special feature provided for members of the lodge and their friends on Wednesday evening of next week.

The program for the evening is as follows:

Grey Days Leon Greedy Bear Bornschorn Goin' Home Dvorak De Coppah Moon Shelley The Mouse Crist
Girls Glee Club
Reading—Honeymoon Ruth Sperry
Violin Solo—Polish Dance Severn Georgia Welch

Life's Niceties
HINTS ON ETIQUET
1. What employees always expect tips?
2. What employees should one never try to tip?
3. What is a more satisfactory way to express gratitude to them?
The Answers.
1. Lesser ones, such as waiters, chambermaids, porters and so on.
2. Those in administrative positions, such as hotel clerks, persons on a ship or Pullman conductors.
3. An appreciative word or manner, or if they show unusual consideration, write a note to their employers commending them.

Dorothy Britton of New York City, who will lead all the processions at the beach and preside at the various social events.
Newspapers and theaters are selecting the ambassadors of beauty to represent various states and foreign countries. The first foreign entry is that of Fraulein Hella Hoffman of Germany, a 17-year-old blonde.
The French liner Niagara, sailing from Havre May 7, will bring the "envoys" from England, France, Belgium, Italy, Spain, Portugal, Greece, Luxembourg and Cuba. Fraulein Hoffman will sail directly from Bremen, Mexico and Canada also will be represented by girls.

CORAL AND GOLD USED IN COSTUME JEWELRY
Paris—(AP)—Necklaces of long, flat gold links fitted so closely together that the effect is of a single wide band of gold are among the new costume jewelry.
Another favorite gold ornament is the choker of flat leaves. Paris recommends smooth, bright gold in preference to jewels for day time wear.

Pendants, necklaces and bracelets of coral are worn by many fashionable women. Coral buckles for black shoes and coral rings through which the ends of handkerchief scarfs are slipped, cowboy fashion, are among the novelties.
Wide bracelet cuffs of leather laced with thongs and slave collars of leather are new sports accessories.

P. E. O. TO MEET TUESDAY EVENING
The members of Chapter AC, Illinois P. E. O. will meet Tuesday evening with Mrs. H. A. Lazier, 203 E. McKinney street. Miss Burnham will be the assistant hostess. Members are requested to note the change in the day and time of meeting, also.

NEWS of the CHURCHES
S. S. RALLY
The executive committee of the Dixon District S. S. Association issues special notice to the sixteen schools of the district, calling their attention to the Rally Aims for the attendance on Palm Sunday (tomorrow) and Easter Sunday.
A year ago, two thousand and twenty-two hundred fifty were the aims for the two days. That for Palm Sunday was not reached, while over twenty-three hundred were reported for Easter.
This year, the Palm Sunday aim (2,000) is repeated, and that for Easter is raised to twenty-five hundred. School superintendents are urged to keep these forward steps in mind, and have secretaries report next Monday to George Weyant (phone 162) promptly on Monday morning.

ST. MARY'S CHURCH SUBLETTE
Sublette merchants to close stores on Good Friday, 12 Noon to 3 p. m. "Tre Ore" services at St. Mary's church.
Through the efforts of St. Mary's Holy Name Society, the merchants of Sublette will again close their stores on Good Friday from 12 noon until 3 p. m. out of respect and reverence for the Savior of the world. And there will be special services held at St. Mary's church during these hours. The St. Mary's choir will render "The Seven Last Words of Christ on the Cross," and the "Tre Ore" services will be conducted by the pastor and Rev. FARMERS O. K. WARREN AND ALLEN.

The Illinois Agricultural Association report on candidates for the house and Senate in this territory as delivered at a meeting of the Association in this city last week gives a perfect score to Alvin Warren of DeKalb County and Henry Allen of Whiteside County, two of the three candidates for nomination at the April 10 primary from this district. In summing up their records of these two candidates, judging from the support they gave to bills that had the farmer endorsement, they are each given 100 per cent while other members of the legislature score only 50 and 25 per cent.

Charles Baker of the 10th District, (Ogle and Winnebago) was also given a 100 per cent endorsement by the farm organization. Sen. Hicks of Rockford, who is being opposed by Mr. Baker for the statements in this election, was only given 25 per cent.

The report of the Illinois Agricultural Association calls for the return of Representatives Warren and Allen to the legislature and indicates that they should receive the unanimous support of the farmers of this district. This also applies to city voters, because in the cities and towns of Lee and the other counties of the district, farm interests are a vital part of every voter's interests. Farm prosperity means prosperity in the town.

Warren and Allen have given this district splendid representation and they deserve to be returned to the legislature.

BABY TRAVELS ALONE.

Miss Felicitas Latteier, making her first trip abroad, has attracted a good deal of attention because she is going quite alone and because she is only 11 months old. She will be the special charge of a stewardess on the North German Lloyd liner which is carrying her to her grandmother in Germany.

The fact suggested by this situation is one that is frequently lost sight of. That is, railroad and steamship lines give very useful and kindly human service when need requires.

Travelers frequently act upon the theory that they have an inalienable right to complain about service. Yet when an invalid or an infant or older minor child must be sent some distance alone, the trip can be arranged for and made with safety and comfort. Many people who have had experience of this sort of thing have been surprised and gratified at the thoroughness and kindness with which the special care required has been given.

ARGUMENT ON THE AIR.

The British government has maintained a ban on the broadcasting of speeches or statements "involving political, religious or industrial controversies." That is a pretty broad ban. It has been impossible to enforce it completely. Bernard Shaw and others have either refused to broadcast, or defied the order. Now the government removes the prohibition.

This is sensible and inevitable. The traditional right of free speech seems to be involved in this new form of communication. There is also an analogy to a free press. The only excuse for radio censorship in a free country like England or America is to avoid offense to listeners. But surely the listeners can attend to that themselves. Their rights are in their own hands. All they have to do if they don't like what a speaker is saying is to tune out.

But as a matter of fact, people dote on controversy. That has been shown in this country by the avidity of the radio public for broadcast debates.

The only rules necessary are to avoid indecency and give both sides a chance.

THE TINYMITES
STORY BY MAI COCHRAN—PICTURES BY KNICK

"Ah, there we are," the baker cried. "The cake is set to put inside the oven, and we soon shall see what sort of luck we've had. We've surely done the best we could, and I just bet 'twill be real good. You've all worked hard, but when it's done, I'm sure you will be glad."

The Tiniest lifted up the pan and with it to the oven ran. The baker opened up the door and put the cake pan in. Now, everything seemed quite all right, and so the door was shut up tight. The baker said, "It's baking now." This made the Tiniest grin.

"Well, while we wait, I have some work," the baker said, "that I can't shirk. I'll leave you Tiniest here and I'll soon be back this way." Then, as he journeyed o'er the hill, the Tiniest just could not keep still. To celebrate the cake they all began to run and play.

Alas, alack, this sure was sad. It made their cake turn out real bad. Their jumping round had jarred it and the top fell very flat. The baker came and looked inside, and then to cheer them up he cried, "I have another cake, so don't you fret and fuss 'bout that."

And, sure enough, another cake had been put in to slowly bake. This was a great big round one, and it had three layers, too. The baker said, "Now, close your eyes while I prepare a fine surprise. The cake is done, but there's one thing that I desire to do."

The Tiniest closed their eyes real tight. The baker worked with all his might at spreading dandy frosting on the luscious looking treat. "This help-oh the cake a lot, no doubt. And then the Tiniest heard him shout, "All right, you all can look now, 'cause the cake is set to eat."

(The Tiniest have a cake party in the next story.)

STATISTICS FROM ILLINOIS PROVE
VALUE TO NATION

New Record is Established by State Dept. of Health

Springfield, Ill.—Two and one half million invaluable records of births and deaths have been placed in fireproof storage, registration of births has been improved sufficiently to make the statistics from Illinois acceptable to the federal government at Washington and analytical compilations are now regularly made of the vital statistics in Illinois as a result of a general law enforcement program initiated by Governor Small.

These statements were contained in a special report to the governor from the state health department where it was pointed out that birth and death certificates now constitute some of the most valuable legal records in governmental care.

Of Much Legal Importance

"Fully 50,000 certified copies of birth and death certificates are issued annually in Illinois," said the report. "About every other person who dies carries life insurance and the companies require certified copies of death certificates before payment is made. That practice accounts for the issuing of about 40,000 certified copies per year."

"Overflowing school rooms are making school officials particular about admitting underaged children. 'Strict child labor laws and double compensation clauses for minors in the workmen's compensation laws ing minors. These conditions are make employers careful about hiring the principal causes that lead to a demand for about 10,000 certified birth certificates per year."

"Aside from this valuable importance the birth and death records have a tremendously significant sociological and health value. The number of births that occur provides a good idea of race healthfulness or the lack of it. The number of deaths and the causes of mortality show the trend of physical vigor and what diseases are most fatal and suggest methods of prevention and control. They indicate at what ages in life the most active preventive measures are needed. Death records also furnish a basis for life insurance premium rates and many other business transactions."

Gov. Small Starts Real Records

"Up until 1921 birth registration in Illinois was so incomplete that the federal government in Washington would not accept them as a part of the vital history of the nation. In 1922 the state was admitted to the U. S. birth registration area after federal test."

"Prior to 1921 practically none of the records were analyzed or indexed. Now all ordinary analyses are made and published annually and both birth and death records are so completely indexed that a search for any particular certificate from any year requires less than five minutes time. Furthermore, these valuable records were removed to fireproof storage five years ago, in keeping with the law that so requires."

Spain Puts Armor on Horses of Bull Rings

Madrid, Spain.—(AP)—Thanks to the initiative of the Society for the Protection of Animals and Plants, whose president is the Prince of the Asturias, eldest son of King Alfonso, the mistreatment of animals is diminishing rapidly in Spain.

Bullfights are being closely watched by the authorities, and this season the horses engaged in them must be furnished with protective cuirasses.

The movement is being assisted greatly by the publication of city humane ordinances by the municipal councils. The Spanish people show a desire to learn more humane methods, and on the streets of Madrid pedestrians may be seen calling the attention of drivers to suffering caused to their animals.

Even in the case of birds the effect of this change of temperament on the part of the people is observable. Formerly nothing was done for thousands of sparrows and pigeons in the city streets. Now it is not infrequent to see children and grown ups stopping to feed them.

A dozen homes have been established in Madrid alone for the benefit of stray household pets.

Did You Ever Stop To Think How Easy It Is To Own Your Own Home!

Often the man with limited capital and resources is just the man who should own his own home. Too often however, he fears he cannot finance the deal. In numerous ways he could if he knew how to proceed.

The value of home ownership should be paramount in the minds of every American citizen. When a friend greets you at his door and adds, as he cordially invites you in—"Make yourself at home", you know that he has offered you the sum total of hospitality. For home affords not only the creature comforts of food, shelter, and warmth, with a sense of security and well being, but it is a refuge from the toil and worry of the great outside headlong, jostling world, and the haven of all those dear affections of sympathy and kindness which gives to life its truest meaning.

So it is safe to say that everyone wants a home of his very own, yet unfortunately, but few know how to proceed.

The first thing to do is to approach a reputable builder of homes and frankly seek his advice. Often what he tells you will prove a revelation, and open up a vista of possibility you little dreamed of.

Blake, we will call him that for his name is legion, visualized a home of his own as an asset of the very highest value in terms of self-respect and a more responsible citizenship. Vaguely, he knew that one can buy almost anything on credit following the installment plan. Aside from that his knowledge was nil. There was in his community, however, a home builder of considerable repute, a company that had earned the confidence and respect of the public by a history of fair dealing and honest construction. So Blake went to them and frankly stated his desire. These builders went into a thorough plan of operation with him, and the outcome of the matter was that, almost magically, Blake and his happy family found themselves in possession of the home of their dreams, with very little outlay of money, and with permission to pay for their investment in monthly payments amounting to less than the amount they had been paying each month as rent.

They were able to do so by virtue of the plan of home ownership which any constructor will be glad to explain in detail.

From this point, we will let Blake tell about it in his own words. "Almost miraculously we found ourselves in possession of the home we had always dreamed about, but cherished solely as a dream. We had been paying $50 a month rent for so long that I am ashamed to say that we could almost have papered any one room in the house with rent receipts, but I hardly figured them of any use even for this purpose, so we lost them in the shuffle when we moved. But having paid $50 a month for so long, it was not much of a transition to transfer a like amount each month to the repayment of the building loan.

"It was indeed just like signing the rent check, but there is more to it than appears on the surface as yet. When I paid my rent in the past before I owned the house, the money was gone forever. Now, when I paid my building and loan check every month, amounting as it did to about the same sum as my rent back in the past, one-half of the value of the check was paid back to me. That is to say, of the $50 a month $25 during the first year was a return of the principal which I borrowed and the other $25 was a payment of interest on the $5,000 which I had borrowed. Thus instead of $50 a month being gone forever, only $25 a month had so taken wings. I had incidentally a far better place to live in and I had the feeling that this was my house, this way my home. I could pat the foundation and say to myself—this is mine. I created this".

Any member of the Association listed below will very cheerfully talk your building problems over with you.

OHIO'S FAVORITE SON FOR PRES. IS TAKEN SUDDENLY

Senator Willis Died While Awaiting His Political Address

Delaware, O., March 31—(AP)—United States Senator Frank B. Willis, Ohio's favorite son candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, was eliminated from the contest by death last night, while attending an old fashioned homecoming demonstration.

He was stricken a few minutes before he was to deliver a campaign address to his fellow townsmen at Ohio Wesleyan University, and just as the Columbus Republican Glee Club was singing "A Soldier's Farewell."

While the glee club was singing the Senator left the stage, telling friends he "wanted to get a breath of fresh air." His death, which five physicians said was caused by cerebral hemorrhages, occurred within five minutes. He was 56 years old.

He had told his private secretary, Charles A. Jones, he was "feeling very bad." Soon after the Senator collapsed. Mrs. Willis, called from the stage where she had been sitting with her husband, reached his side a few minutes before he died.

His Friends Wept

The audience first was informed the Senator had been taken ill and would be unable to speak. They sensed something more distressing had happened and as they lingered to learn the truth, many of his old friends, both men and women cried. Some women became almost hysterical.

National Guard troops that had participated in the parade and demonstration, foot charges and dispersed the crowd, which became excited but orderly.

With the Senator when the end came, besides Mrs. Willis were his brother, Buell W. Willis; his father-in-law, John Dustin of Galena; three brothers-in-law, his private secretary, and a few personal friends.

Wife Unconvinced

Mrs. Willis was unconvinced for some time her husband was dead. Escorted from the chamber on the verge of hysteria, she was taken to the home of her father in Galena.

Miss Helen Willis, the only child, was notified at Ada, O., where she is a professor at Ohio Northern University.

National Guard troops formed an escort of honor as the Senator's body was removed to an undertaking establishment. Major L. C. Riddle announced he would maintain a guard over the body until the funeral.

News of the Senator's death spread rapidly over the city. His pictures displayed in the homes and business places, were draped in mourning.

While funeral arrangements have not yet been made, burial probably will be at Galena, his birthplace, eleven miles southeast of this city.

The hour just before the Senator's death had been one of pleasing triumph for him. In the town he called home he had been signally honored. The streets were decorated in red, white and blue. His name streamed across the thoroughfares teeming with his admirers.

Had Taken Nap

Senator Willis had arrived in Delaware yesterday afternoon from Columbus, where he was met by a boyhood friend, Roy Brower.

Mr. Willis told Brower he wished to rest and went to a hotel for about two hours' sleep. Upon arising, apparently refreshed, Senator Willis went to a Kiwanis Club dinner in the hotel.

Dr. I. T. McCarty, one of the physicians with the Senator when he died, and who also attended the dinner, said Senator Willis had told him during the course of the meal that he "never felt better in my life."

Telegrams, expressing sorrow and sympathy continued to pour in today to Mrs. Willis and relatives of the distinguished Senator. Political opponents were unanimous in their praise of the Senator's character, ability and sincerity. All declared they had the deepest regard for Senator Willis in every respect.

COLLEAGUES SHOCKED

Washington, March 31—(AP)—The sudden and shocking news of the death of Senator Frank B. Willis, of Ohio, as he was about to make a Presidential campaign speech last night at Delaware, Ohio, threw the second shroud of mourning over Congress within eight days today and embroiled the Republicans in the tightest political tangle heard of in years.

The Senate had barely recovered from the death of Senator Woodbridge H. Ferris, of Michigan, who died here of pneumonia, March 23, when it received the report of the collapse and sudden passing of the senior Ohio Senator and candidate for the Republican presidential nomination.

Senator Willis' death not only brings to a close the spectacular drive against Secretary Hoover he was making in Ohio for delegates to the Republican convention and forces his supporters into a difficult situation, but it also means a considerable shifting about of the Ohio Senatorial campaign since undoubtedly a Democrat will be named as a successor to Willis.

Line-Up Unchanged.

As far as the Senate lineup is concerned here, apparently there will be no change in Governor Green, of Michigan, who is a Republican, is expected to name a man of his own party to succeed Ferris, who is a Democrat, and Governor Dohahey, who is a Democrat, undoubtedly will appoint a Democrat to succeed Willis.

As Senator Fess, Republican, Ohio, will seek re-election in November, there will be two Senators up for re-endorsement in the next election in that state. Willis' term, which would have expired March 3, 1933, also then will have to be filled in the regular way.

Hoover and Willis were the only ones entered in the Ohio presidential preference primary, which on April 24 will decide who will get the state's 51 delegates to the convention. Both had complete slates in the field pledged to their support. Since the Ohio law provides that whoever carries a district gets that district's delegate vote the outcome was to have given the first indication of the Commerce Secretary's strength and nation-wide interest had been created.

Whether Willis' name can be taken off the primary lists, entry for which closed more than a month ago, was a question an answer to which was awaited with interest here today. It is now up to the late Senator's supporters, observers declare, to decide whether they will discontinue the fight against Hoover and let him have the Ohio delegation by default, or carry on the drive under the Willis banner in an effort to swing the delegation to some other candidate opposed to the cabinet officer.

ACID FRUITS AND ACIDOSIS.

For many years, in my writings and lectures, I have found it necessary to explain away the common belief that acid fruits have a direct effect in producing the condition of the body known as acidosis.

From my laboratory experiments and after years of experience in teaching patients how to cure Acidosis, I am convinced that there is not the slightest excuse for believing that acid fruits have any effect whatsoever increasing this condition. In order to understand this fact, it is well, first of all, to know what acidosis means. It may be simply defined as acid-intoxication of the tissues of the body. The causes are varied. It is condition present with such diseases as diabetes, tuberculosis, cancer, fever, appendicitis, peritonitis, pneumonia, stomach and intestinal ulcers, indigestion, tonsillitis and, in fact, almost all ailments. The normal state of the bodily tissues is alkaline, and, in all diseases, bad habits of living are responsible for the predicament in which the sick ones find themselves. Chief among these errors in living are the use of wrong quality and quantity of food, improper combinations of food, insufficient exercises and improper habits of thought.

Bad combinations of food will produce excess fermentation with the consequential creation of flatulence and hyperacidity of the stomach and intestines. If not enough sufficiently vigorous physical culture exercise is indulged in, even the best foods will also generate toxins.

All enervating habits waste energy which is needed in the processes of digestion and the result is that the body attempts to chemically change the food materials into useful substances which can be assimilated by throwing out large quantities of gastric juice containing hydrochloric acid. The continued effect of this is to lower the blood's alkalinity producing a state of the tissues, favorable to any of the deficiency diseases. The blood is never really acid until death, but bad habits will reduce the normal alkalinity. Faulty metabolism (change of tissue) takes place and the result is that the system does not have the proper resistance against disease.

The body is literally dying more than it is being built up and the closer to death one comes, the less the normal alkalinity of the blood exists. The first signs will be depression, coated tongue, poor circulation, bad color of the skin and a general "blue" feeling. If the food is reduced to the proper amount and combined properly and increased exercise is taken, the body forces will again resume this proper balance and no serious disease will occur.

Only after years of bad habits will a definite disease develop, and "Acidosis" is a name used by physicians to describe the general toxemia present in these destructive ailments. Elimination of toxins is retarded and the cure of all disease depends mainly upon increased elimination of poisons from the body. I have never found a method superior to the fasting regime to accomplish this purpose, and the best results usually occur when fruit is used to the exclusion of all other foods. The best of all fruits for this purpose are the citrus fruits, such as the orange, lemon and grapefruit. When no other food is used, the elimination of toxic material proceeds with the greatest rapidity and, in a short time, the blood has regained its normal balance and is again alkaline to reaction. The peculiar odor to the breath of a diabetic patient is from the acetone thrown out through the lungs and, when a case is curable, this will disappear after a few days of the fruit regime.

After enough elimination has taken place, the patient is placed on a diet consisting mostly of the vegetables rich in alkaline salts, such as the so-called non-starchy vegetables.

Remember! Orange juice every day chases Acidosis away.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

FELLOWSHIP OF PRAYER

Working with God. (Read Isaiah 40:27-31.) Memory Verse: To him that hath no might, he increaseth strength. (Isaiah 40:29.)

It is said that during the construction of one of the East River bridges in New York, the engineers were baffled by an old sunken barge which lay embedded in the river bottom. Powerful engines, steel cables, derricks and rafts were powerless to remove the obstruction. A young man fresh from a technical school received permission to try his hand. At low tide he had a large barge towed out to the spot and the ends of it fastened to the sunken derelict. As the tide came in from the Atlantic the barge rose, bringing with it the submerged wreck. "The young engineer had linked to his task the limitless power of the ocean tides." So we may link the might of God to our tasks. Whoever consecrates his life to some aim that is God's aim will have behind him the infinite might of God.

SUNDAY

The Ground of Optimism. Read Psalm 42. Memory Verse: Hope Thou in God. (Psalm 42:5.) Religion is our final ground for optimism. One needs something more than a physical basis for hope, and that something is belief in a strong, purposeful and loving God. Dean Inge has been called "the gloomy dean," but his readers will observe that he always stops short of hopelessness. He never says of a calamity or a failure that it is sure to occur. He says, "if," or "unless," and he leaves one with the impression that he does not expect the dark prognostication is going to be fulfilled. For he is a Christian believer. Our ground for hope that humanity's noble dreams of justice and peace will come true is our faith that these are the things that God wills.

Prayer: O Lord of all being, thou hast revealed to us the vision of a universe guided and preserved by law, and upheld by obedience to thy will. Through steadfast reliance on thee may we discover within and around us thine unseen and beneficent powers, and be made strong for all circumstances. Amen.

For the love of men is the root of all evil.—I Tim. 6:10.

Will Easter is reported sick.

Jack Becker and wife and Frank Lett and wife motored to Chicago on Sunday to spend the day.

Mrs. Will Easter is at home again after a three weeks stay at the Chas. Hatch home, where she was nurse in charge of little Harriet Hatch, who had a very serious case of diphtheria.

OBITUARY

IDA E. MISSMAN
(Contributed)

Ida E. Missman was born at Tamaron, Ill., June 17, 1861, and passed to her rest at Kansas City, Mo., March 28, 1928, at the age of 66 years, 8 months and 10 days.

She was the oldest child of John G. and Susan Bridges, both of whom have passed to their long rest.

At an early age she moved with her parents from El Paso, Ill., to Weatherford, Texas. This was in December, 1877, and soon afterward she was united in marriage to Daniel Webster Missman, who preceded her in death some thirteen years ago, and is buried in Oakwood cemetery, Dixon.

Shortly after their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Missman moved to a farm in South Dixon township. Three children were born to them: Norman Leroy, who passed away in infancy; Harry Daniel of Oak Park, Ill., and Ralph Henry of Evansville, Ind. Besides the two sons, she leaves two sisters, Mrs. Henry Shuman of Kansas City, Mo., and Mrs. D. C. Fitts of De Smet, S. D., and one brother, Roy Bridges of Dixon.

She united with the Christian Church at an early age, and has been a faithful member ever since. She was also a member of the Eastern Star and its various branches, and was very active in its fellowship, being past worthy Matron, and past State Officer of Oklahoma.

Since the death of her husband, she has made her home with her sister, Mrs. Shuman, in Kansas City, where her death occurred. The remains were brought to Dixon yesterday morning, and the funeral service was held at 2:30 p. m. from the Preston undertaking chapel, with burial in Oakwood. The pastor of the Dixon Christian church, B. H. Cleaver, officiated, with hymns by Mrs. J. E. Reagan and Mrs. C. C. Emmert, Mrs. A. S. Derr, accompanist.

INTERNATIONAL EXCHANGE OF SCULPTURE PLANNED

Geneva.—(AP)—Appreciation of beauty leads to a harmonious knowledge of peoples, thinks the League of Nations.

The league therefore has launched a program for an exchange of castings and moulds of great works of sculpture in the various museums of the world so that the international public may have an opportunity of seeing masterpieces.

The commission on intellectual co-operation through one of its organs, the international office of museums, has obtained the cooperation of the principal museums of Europe and has established relations with the American Association of Museums.

Hays May be Asked to Testify Again

Washington, March 31—(AP)—A fourth appearance before the Senate Teapot Dome committee of Will H. Hays, former chairman of the Republican National Committee, is in prospect as a result of charges that he attempted to halt the oil inquiry four years ago.

The committee first will decide whether to call former Senator Alva B. Adams of Colorado, and Douglas H. McArthur, former secretary to the late Senator Edwin F. Ladd of North Dakota, who made the charges yesterday concerning Hays, who now is in Europe on a business mission for the moving picture industry.

They said that the North Dakota Senator had told them that Hays, in 1924 when Ladd was chairman of the Teapot Dome committee, and Adams was a Democratic member, visited Washington and tried to induce Ladd to join other Republicans on the committee in an effort to stop the inquiry for political reasons.

This bit of information has taken the committee members somewhat by surprise and has dwarfed for the time being their interest in other details and clues which they are running down behind closed doors in an endeavor to determine whether to proceed with public hearings or to await additional reports from its field investigators.

Improve Service of Miss. Barge Company

Minneapolis, Minn., March 30—(AP)—Announcement that four day service between the Twin Cities and Chicago and overnight service from Chicago to Dubuque would be maintained this year by the Inland Waterways Corporation was made today by W. W. Morse, operating manager. The shipping season opens April seventh.

Additional equipment this year makes possible a superior service on high class freight from St. Louis, Chicago and other eastern and southern points to the upper Mississippi valley. Mr. Morse declared.

It is planned to operate a straight package-car via the Illinois Central Railroad from Chicago to Dubuque, giving overnight service from Chicago to Dubuque and direct connection with the northbound sailing from Dubuque each Tuesday and Saturday arriving in the Twin Cities the following Friday and Tuesday.

The new equipment made available to the barge line corporation this year consists of sixty barges and five tow-boats, which will operate on the northern division, with Dubuque, Ia., serving as a central division point. The schedule has been planned along railroad lines, with definite arrival and departure hours stated for every stop along the river.

A new radio station, strong enough so that Twin City ports and barges along the Mississippi can easily get messages to and from New Orleans was recently completed at the Twin Cities Municipal Terminal.

THREE HOPES OF AMERICANS WIN CHICAGO RACES

Bankers' Meet Held Last Eve Showed Favorites

Chicago, March 31—(AP)—Three of America's hopes in the 1928 Olympic games—Lloyd Hahn of the Boston Athletic Association; Ray Conger of the Illinois Athletic Club and Helen Filkey of the Illinois Women's Athletic Club—have won more laurels on the cinder path.

Competing in the annual Chicago Bankers' indoor track meet last night each won their events. The Boston filer won the special mile event and permanent possession of the Chicago Bankers' Trophy; Miss Filkey won possession of a new world's indoor record in the 60 yard low hurdles by running the event in 8 1-5 seconds and Conger beat a good field to capture the 1,000 yard run.

In addition to her new record, the Chicago girl tied two of the records she has held. In the 60 yard dash, she tied her indoor mark of 7 2-5 seconds. In her 60 yard low hurdles performance, Miss Filkey tied the outdoor record, which she has held at 8 1-5 seconds.

A Butler College freshman Joe Sivak, who ran unattached, pushed the brilliant Hahn hard in the mile run. He led Hahn nine of the ten laps, but in the last lap, the Nebraskan sprinted ahead, barely winning by two yards. Because of the numerous turns and a cuppy track, the time was slow, being 4:37.

Conger, who like Hahn conquered the German ace, Dr. Otto Peltzer, during the latter's American invasion, won the 1,000 yard run almost as he pleased, finishing fully 25 yards ahead of his nearest opponent, Walter Caine of the Chicago Athletic Association. His time also was slow—two minutes and 24 seconds.

Only one upset featured the meet. That was the defeat in the 60 yard dash of Jack Elder of Notre Dame by T. C. Yarnell, former University of Illinois dash star and now affiliated with the C. A. A. Yarnell's time was 6 2-5 seconds—1-5 second slower than the world's record of which Elder is a co-holder.

Training Camp News Reported by A. P. Writers

BY BRIAN BELL

(Associated Press Sports Writer)
New York, March 31—(AP)—Minor league baseball players continue to show lack of respect for major league uniforms and the big fellows are finding the trail leading home-ward strewn with difficulties.

As the games, which do not mean anything but loss of dignity, went ahead yesterday, Washington, Cleveland and the St. Louis Browns lost to minor league clubs.

The Philadelphia Athletics, New York Giants and Detroit maintained the prestige of the majors by beating back the opposition from lower classification.

Four National League clubs engaged in battles which might have been dropped out of the regular season weeks ahead.

Brooklyn made it three in a row from Boston by winning a well pitched game 3 to 2 while the Chicago Cubs were trouncing the Pittsburgh Pirates 5 to 2.

The Cubs supported Pat Malone's clever pitching with sharp hitting. Freddy Maguire, who is expected to make Chicago's fans forget that "Sparky" Adams played second base, led the attack.

The Browns were cheered in their 3 to 2 defeat by the Kansas City Blues by the pitching of George Blaeholder. Tulsa's contribution to the St. Louis pitching staff. He showed good form and left the game in time to escape the beating.

The Washington defeat by Birmingham made Ed Wells, former Detroit pitcher, a goat when he was cast for the part of a hero, he won 3 games and lost only one for Birmingham last year. The score was 7 to 6.

The New Orleans Pelicans, have not learned to pronounce the name of Joe Shaute but they solved his delivery to win from Cleveland 16 to 13.

The Athletics prepared for the series to decide the championship of Philadelphia by trimming the Piedmont Leaguers of Greensboro, 22 to 8. Six home runs, four in one inning, helped the winners. Eddie Collins and Tris Speaker struck blows for the old guard.

The Phillies, weather bound at home, impatiently awaited their opponents coming.

Fort Worth was easy for Detroit with the final accounting 9 to 3 in a game which little Jackie Tavener, the hardest hitter in the game for his riches, hit a home run.

Commons May Act to Ease Big Race

London, March 31—(AP)—The turf's severest test of horses—the Grand National Steeplechase—will come before the House of Commons on Tuesday when the Home Secretary will be asked if the race cannot be made less dangerous.

In the running of the race yesterday at Aintree, 42 horses started and only two finished. Tipperary Tim, a 100 to 1 shot, won and Billy Barton, American-bred entry of Howard Bruce of Baltimore, fell at the final barrier, scrambled to his feet and finished second.

The Rev. Herbert Dunnico, labor member for the Consett division of Durham and president of the Liverpool Free Church conference since 1914, will question Sir William Jovonishicks, Home Secretary, concerning the race.

Pointing to the fact that only two horses finished, he asks "whether the Home Secretary has considered the advisability of taking such action as may be necessary to prevent obstacles from being used in this and similar races of such a character as are likely to endanger the lives and limbs of the animals taking part."

The Coyote, owned by Y. Emanuel, an American, fell with another horse at the second jump of the Grand National and after that the casualties were heavy, only nine of the forty-two finished the first of the two laps with all of the American contingent except Billy Barton falling by the way.

Bright's Boy, owned by Stephen Stanford, American, was caught with other favorites in a bad jam at Valentine Brook, ninth obstacle on the first lap, where a thorn fence five feet high and three feet wide, is flanked by a natural stream. Although many fell there were no serious injuries.

CAMBRIDGE WINNER

Putney England, March 31—(AP)—Leading all the way, Cambridge University today scored an easy victory of ten lengths over Oxford in their eightieth annual boat race on the Thames.

The Cambridge crew covered the four mile course in 20 minutes and 25 seconds. The record of 18 minutes and 29 seconds was set by Oxford in 1911.

Today's victory was the Light Blues' thirty-ninth. Oxford has won forty times and one race was tied.

Champion "Woman" Billiard Player Proves to be Man

Sapulpa, Okla., March 30—(AP)—Death has revealed that Frances Anderson, known for many years as "champion woman billiard player," in reality was a man.

Anderson ended his own life here yesterday by slashing his throat and wrists with a razor. Not until the body was prepared for burial did the secret of thirty years of masquerading become known.

Crumpled in one of the woman's stockings he wore, was a letter indicating he had contemplated death and carrying a plea that his secret might be preserved.

"Do what you want with my body," the letter said, "but don't let the world know my secret."

DIXONITE WINS TRAP SHOOT OF INDIANA BRANCH

G. F. Messer Best Shot of Distributors of Overhead Doors

G. F. Messer of Dixon, Illinois, is the champion distributor sharp-shooter of the "Overhead Door" organization of Hartford City, Ind. He distinctly proved his prowess by winning the annual clay pigeon shoot Monday afternoon. Messer broke twenty pigeons out of a possible twenty-five. And he won the $15.

H. G. Peterson, of Hammond, Indiana, copped second when he broke 19 out of a possible 25. He received $10 for his efforts.

A member of the parent "Overhead Door" organization came in for third prize. Charles Moler, of the Engineering Department, clipped 18 out of 25 clay birds and was awarded third prize of $5.

The shoot was a big success. All of the distributors whether "dead eyes" or not, were enthusiastically engaged, booming away at the clay flyers of the air.

Watch Browns and Tigers Says Chief

Chicago, March 31—(AP)—"Watch the St. Louis Browns and the Detroit Tigers."

This is the advice of President E. S. Barnard of the American League, who has just returned from an extensive tour of the junior major league training camps.

"The Browns have a group of new veterans that will be playing ball every minute under a new management, while the Detroit Tigers have a coterie of batsmen who are bound to provide trouble," Barnard said.

Fans should not worry over the poor training season showing of the New York Yankees, Barnard added, as "they have not yet hit their stride. They know how to step up to the plate and swing and that together with some good pitching is what gave them the pennant last year."

The American League prexy said he doubted whether the Cobb-Speaker Collins triumvirate would add much strength to the Philadelphia Athletics, Boston, Cleveland and Chicago do not seem to have the pennant punch, he said, although Washington's youngsters were predicted as troublemakers.

"Jinx" Hits Smith

Kansas City, March 30—(AP)—The "jinx" charged with following stars in tournament competition, has remonstrated in the American Bowling Congress here that even Jimmy Smith of Cleveland, recognized as all-round ten pin champion, is not immune.

Smith, rolling with the E. A. Schaefer recreation team of St. Louis in the five-men event last night, shot 181—258—187, a total of 626. Many fans had assembled hoping to see him deliver another of the many perfect 300 counts with which he is credited.

It was pointed out, however, that the 626 may furnish the basis for a high mark in the all-events, when Smith enters the singles and doubles today.

There were no changes among the first five leaders in the four events yesterday.

ROCHELLE NEWS

Rochelle—A Chicago consulting engineering company, the Randolph & Perkins Co., has been secured by the city of Rochelle to do carefully over the city's needs relative to the water and light systems and make a report of what is most needed, its costs and to make recommendations that will improve the service. A new American turbine pump is being installed, doing away with the old air compressor pump used by the city at the old water-well. This new pump will save considerable to the city. This is the second pump of its kind in use here, and has a capacity of 550 gallons per minute.

Friday evening, April 6th, the Rockford Chapter of the Reserve Officers Association, will meet at the Woodmen hall for a 6:30 banquet. General Paul B. Malone has been secured as the principal speaker. General Malone, a multiple decorated veteran, an officer in the United States army for 34 years since his graduation from West Point, was in charge of the Citizens' Military Training Camp at the Central Department during the early months of 1917. He was Colonel of the 23rd Infantry, second division, in the Sommeddian, Troyon and Marchache sectors and at Chateau-Thierry and in the Aisne-Marne offensive and commanded the 10th Brigade, 5th Division in the San Mihel and Meuse-Argonne offensives. He was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross, Distinguished Service Medal, Croix de Guerre with palms, officer of the Legion of Honor and other campaign medals. He was cited six times for valor during the World war. Colonel Wm. B. Graham, Inf. U. S. A., will be another speaker. Major Edmund R. Andrews, regular army officer on duty at Rockford, has been assigned to the important task of entertaining Gen. Malone during his stay in Rochelle. General Malone will talk on "Our National Defense," and the public are invited to hear the address.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Elks club will meet at the club rooms Monday afternoon, April 2nd at 2:15. The hostesses will be Mrs. L. D. Leonard, Mrs. W. B. McHenry, Mrs. John Marshall, Mrs. G. D. O'Brien, Mrs. W. J. Somers with Mrs. W. P. Maley as chairman. Those expecting to attend will please notify one of the hostesses.

The Ogile County Medical Society met Thursday evening at the Chamber of Commerce rooms in this city. Dinner was served at 6:30 P. M. The following program was given as planned and arranged by Dr. J. M. Beveridge, President, and Dr. Lambertus Warmolts, Secretary:

"Puerperal Infection", Dr. Frank F. Maple, Chicago. Discussion opened by Dr. E. S. Murphy, Dixon.

"Abdominal Lesions", Dr. A. W. Christenson, Rockford. Discussion opened by Dr. James T. Gregor, Chicago.

The feature of the Rochelle Chamber of Commerce noon day luncheon on Thursday, April 5th will be the Girls' Glee Club of Coe College, Cedar Rapids, Iowa. At 3:45 the club will give a program for the public and young people at the Presbyterian church. This will give our community a chance to see and hear this fine bunch of young people.

On Saturday evening at 8:00 P. M. the Cornell College orchestra will give a concert at the M. E. church. This orchestra appeared here before and was splendidly received. The Epworth League is sponsoring the concert.

A Community Chorus under the direction of Miss E. Marie O'Brien will present the beautiful cantata, "The Seven Last Words of Christ," on Good Friday evening, April 6th at 8:00 o'clock at the Presbyterian church. The cantata is given every year in the larger communities and cities and is a musical story that everyone should hear and know. This is the first time in many years that any organization in Rochelle has presented a program of such type and quality. The performance should be a fitting contribution to the Holy Week service. No admission charge will be made.

The Modern Woodmen will conduct a three night Leap Year Frolic April 12th, 13th, and 14th. Dancing will be the principal feature.

Do you know that the Dixon Loan & Building Association is one of our best and strongest institutions. If you are interested in saving money investigate the association. The Secretary will give you desired information.

ROCHELLE NEWS

Rochelle—Rochelle Post No. 403, American Legion, have nominated and will back Past Post Commander Charles E. Kepner for county Legion Commander when the organization meeting is held in Oregon, April 12. A large delegation from here will attend the banquet.

At Tuesday night's meeting and smoker the Post voted unanimously to extend an invitation to the G. A. R. and Ladies Grant Circle to meet in the Legion rooms gratuitously and a committee with power to act was authorized to buy an American flag for the G. A. R. The Civil War veterans lost their headquarters and flags in the Rochelle Trust & Savings Bank fire.

The Post will proceed with Fourth of July plans assisted by financial backing of Rochelle's business and professional men.

The firing squad guns are being called in and will be placed in a gun rack in the Legion hall.

The Legion was tendered an invitation to attend the reserve officers program here, April 6.

Martin V. Peterman, the speaker of the evening, gave an interesting account of his trip to Paris for the American Legion convention as a delegate and member of the state of Illinois band.

Decay of Concrete Studied by Experts

New York—(AP)—An investigation of the deterioration of concrete masonry is in progress in the testing laboratories of the civil engineering department of Columbia university.

The tests, still incomplete after two years of study, indicate that improper construction and workmanship are among the most important factors in the disintegration of concrete, says Prof. A. H. Beyer, who is in charge of the laboratories.

"The whole phenomenon of concrete deterioration is extremely complex," Professor Beyer asserts. "In some pieces of construction concrete is affected quite rapidly, while in others, under almost identical conditions, its disintegration with time is almost negligible. No progress can be made against such deterioration until the underlying causes are thoroughly understood."

Masonry which stands in water, such as bridge abutments and piers, is particularly susceptible to serious wear, whether the water is fresh or salt and whether the climate is tropical or temperate.

David L. Snader, professor of structural engineering at Stevens Institute of Technology and a graduate student at Columbia, is making the tests in collaboration with Prof. Roy J. Colony, a Columbia geologist. Their materials are samples of masonry taken from culverts, abutments, walls and other structures which have deteriorated so far as to necessitate repairs. Microscopic and x-ray examinations of these pieces are made by the scientists.

CHINESE YOUTH SWARM TO JAPAN'S ARMY SCHOOLS

Tokyo—(AP)—Because of the internal troubles of China, army officers are in great demand there, and Japanese military schools and colleges are overrun with application from Chinese students who desire to become military leaders in the Celestial republic.

During the last few years China has been sending from 30 to 50 military students yearly to Japan. This year, however, the number of applicants to the military training schools of Japan broke all records, more than 500 young Chinese potential generals seeking admittance. Most of these have been sent by Marshal Chang Tso-lin, warlord of Manchuria and the generalissimo of the Peking government, and by General Chiang Kai-shek, the Nationalist war leader.

After studying for a year and a half in the Japanese schools, the Chinese cadets will return to their native land with the rank of major. Then they may lose their heads or become rulers of large provinces.

Of more than 500 applicants this year, the Japanese will admit only 100 to their military colleges because of insufficient accommodations.

NEW PAGEANT SELECTED FOR PORTLAND'S SHOW

Portland, Ore.—(AP)—A new symbolic pageant, "Where Rolls the Oregon," has been selected this year to replace "Rosaria," which for two years has featured Portland's annual Rose Festival. More than 3,000 performers, singers and dancers are to take part.

The title of the civic spectacle is from Bryant's "Thanatopsis." Dean Collins, Portland newspaperman, poet and humorist is the author and he has woven into it a colorful series of episodes climaxing in a spectacular floral chorus. Special music is being prepared.

The Rose Festival is from June 11 to 16 this year.

BANKRUPT'S PETITION FOR DISCHARGE.

In the District Court of the United States, for the Northern District of Illinois.

In the matter of R. C. FRAZA, Bankrupt.

In Bankruptcy, No. 1514.

To the Honorable Judge of the District Court of the United States for the Northern District of Illinois:

R. C. FRAZA (trading as FRAZA Automotive) of Dixon in the County of Lee and State of Illinois in said district, respectfully represents that, on the 5th day of January last past, he was duly adjudicated bankrupt under the acts of Congress relating to bankruptcy; that he has duly surrendered all his property and rights in and to the same to the trustee of said district, and has fully complied with all the requirements of said acts and of the orders of the court touching his bankruptcy.

Wherefore, he prays that he may be decreed by the court to have a full discharge from all debts provable against his estate under said bankruptcy acts, except such debts as are excepted by law from such discharge.

Dated this 1st day of March, A. D. 1928.

for royal visitors. It became the painful duty of the governmental hosts to indicate to their royal guests that suitable quarters could be found at the Hotel Crillon. Their majesties took the hint most reluctantly, being quite content with the richly furnished and tapestried rooms where they were.

More embarrassment arose from the artless behavior of the king and queen in the jewelry shops of the Rue de la Paix. There were difficulties at first in convincing them that everything they selected would not be paid for by the French government and presented to them as gifts.

Another difficulty arose over the king's refusal to sample food offered him at state and private entertainments before his hostess or host had first tasted of it. Some people re-

ANNE AUSTIN AUTHOR OF "SAINT AND SINNER"

THIS HAS HAPPENED

SALLY FORD, inmate of a state orphanage, is "farmed out" the summer she is 16 to CLEM CARSON, farmer. There she meets DAVID BAYNE, student and athlete, who is working on the Carson farm for the summer. Carson makes instantiations about David's friendship for Sally and David strikes him. Not knowing whether Carson is dead or not, Sally and David decide to run away. All that night they tramp through fields and unused roads toward the little town of Stanton. At daybreak they cross the railroad track and see a carnival train. Sally instantly spies EDWIN COBB, a former orphanage boy who ran away to join the carnival. The owner of the carnival makes a place for them.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XIV

"Right this way, la-dees and gentlemen! Step right up and see Boffo, the ostrich man, eat glass, nails, toothpicks, lead pipe, or what have you! He chews 'em up and swallows 'em like a kid eats candy! Boffo digests anything and everything from horseshoes to jackknives! Any gentlemen present got a jack-knife for Boffo's dinner? Come on, folks! Don't be bashful! Don't let Boffo go hungry!"

Dimly through the crowd came the voice of the Barker and ticket seller in his tall, red, scarred box outside the tent: "All right, all right! Here you are! Only a quarter—25 cents—two bits—to see the big show! Performance just started! Step right up! All right, boys, this way! Don't let your girls call you a piker! Two bits pays for it all! See the half-man-half-woman! See the girl nobody can lift! Try and lift her, boys! Little and pretty as a picture, but heavy as lead! All right, step right in! Don't crowd! Room for everybody! See Princess Lalla, the Harem Crystal Gazer! See all, knows all! See Pity Sing, the smallest woman in the world—"

Incredible! On Saturday, just two days ago, she had been peeling apples to make pies for the Carson family. Today she was a member of a carnival troupe, under the protection of Winfield Bybee, owner of all these weird creatures about whom the speller was chanting. It was too unreal to be true.

There had been 12 solid hours of sleep. Then had come a marvellously satisfying supper in the dining car, or "privilege" car, with Bybee himself introducing her to those astonishing people whom the speller was now exhibiting to the curious country people. The giant, a Hollander named Jan something-or-other, had bent from vast heights to take her hand; the tiny male midwife, a Hawaiian billed merely as Noko, had gravely asked her in a tiny, piping voice, if she would sew a button on his miniature coat for him; the bearded "lady" was a man, after all, a man with a naturally falsetto voice and tiny hands and feet. Boffo, the human ostrich had disappointed her by being satisfied with a very ordinary diet of corned beef and cabbage. The fat girl, who had confided to Sally that she only weighed 350 pounds though she was billed as "tipping the scales" at 620, had patiently drunk glass after glass of milk, until a gallon had been consumed—all in the interest of keeping her weight up and adding to it.

Then Bybee had taken her to his wife, a thin, hatchet-faced shrew of a woman who seemed to suspect everything in petticoats of having designs on her husband, and who, in turn, seemed to feel equally sure that every man must envy him the possession of such a wonderful woman as his wife. Her deference toward her touched Sally even as it amused her.

FRANKLIN GROVE NEWS NOTES

Franklin Grove—The following interesting articles were handed to us by Rev. O. D. Buck of the Brethren church. It will be interesting to all readers of this column. Reference is made to two who are past ninety years of age, who are Marcus Gommerman and Garnet Kregar.

FACTS OF INTEREST

During the last several weeks I have called on nearly all the homes in our village for the purpose of getting better acquainted with the people, to give a bit of cheer to the aged and shut-ins and to ascertain the attitude of the people on religion and their relation to the different churches, hoping this effort will prove helpful to me in rendering service to our town and community.

I was received courteously in all the homes, however in a few instances there was no response to the door bell not because no one was home, or because it was not heard, but I presume because they did not want to be bothered by agents or preachers.

I have tabulated a few facts which I thought might be interesting to others so present them here. These refer to the residents of the village of Franklin Grove, not including any of the country.

These figures may not all be absolutely exact as I did not get to see a few people but are very near correct as far as they could be ascertained. A large number of our residents are retired people and the age limit runs high as indicated by the number above eighty and a large number having passed the three-score and ten, two having passed the ninety mark.

There are 269 or 44 percent that are not members of any church. Deducting 43 pre-school age children, leaves 226 of which 73 are school age boys and girls between 6 and 16 years and 153 in the late teen age and adults who make no profession of religion. These figures suggest some questions which ought to stimulate our serious thought and consideration.

1. What has done and is doing more for the well-being of humanity here and hereafter than the Christian religion and the Christian church?

2. Can we live the fullest, happiest and most useful life without living

The March session of the W. C. T. U. accepted the invitation given by Mrs. C. W. Troselle who opens her home once each year to honor and commemorate the life of Francis E. Willard. Promptly at 2 o'clock the president, Mrs. P. D. Lahman, called the meeting to order. Each officer was in her place. Song, America, with Mrs. Conlon at the piano. Mrs. O. D. Buck, evangelistic superintendent was in charge of the devotions. Following are some of the high points of the afternoon speakers. Rev. Thomas of the Presbyterian church spoke first. His subject was, "The Pertils of Prohibition." He said prohibition is no longer an experiment. It is a policy—ours is a government by political parties, their platform declarations express the policy of the party on public questions. Nothing more true was ever said than that no man can serve two masters. Every ambitious, self respecting individual wants to make a living. That he should do. But in this money-mad age we do well to remind ourselves that after all the real purpose of our existence is not to make a living, but to make a life a worthy, useful life, anything that reflects that purpose is not worth the cost. Miss Willard is a greater woman today than ever. To her do we give the credit for the 18th amendment. It belongs to us to keep the enemy retreating.

Mrs. Ives then gave a fine reading on "Nobility."

Rev. Buck of the Brethren church said. Let us commemorate the noble deeds of Miss Willard. Conditions are different but one fact remains, do not sleep on the job. Every candidate for public office should explain how he stands on every subject pertaining to our government. Live by reason, not entirely by gold. Total abstinence from alcohol liquors, tobacco and profanity should be drilled into the forming brains of childhood. Choose, where two paths meet, the narrow, not the broad—as there thoughtless little feet enter life's dusty road. The county vice president, Mrs. Strook of Dixon, said: Christianity first, prohibition will follow. "He serves best who lives best." All pure habits, all health and sanity of brain make for the Kingdom of Heaven. The joy of life is doing good according to a plan. There will come to voting age this year 2,165,000 young men and young women. Almost ten million will have reached voting age since the last presidential election. Do they know the benefits of prohibition.

After a musical number by Mrs. Ives and Mrs. Timothy the hostess served pleasing refreshments. We want you—women who love your state and your country. We hope that through our united efforts for God and home and every land the womanhood of America may stand to be counted together as well as one by one.

The March session of the W. C. T. U. was a success in attendance, enthusiasm and program. Mrs. Flora Timothy, Secy.

Will Resume Battle Over Tax Reduction

Washington, March 30—(AP)—Next week's Senate committee room fight over tax reduction took on added significance today with publication of the Treasury's latest estimate of the probable surplus next fiscal year and the development that the Democrats are preparing to maintain stiff opposition to the administration's plans for a cut below its original $225,000,000 recommendation.

Speaking in Chicago last night, Under Secretary Mills of the Treasury said that because the Department had made no allowances for increased appropriations due to new legislation its first estimate of $252,000,000 for the indicated 1929 surplus had been out $37,000,000. Moreover, he added, the new $215,000,000 figure did not take into account probable additional expenditures for flood and farm relief.

For this reason, Mills asserted, the original recommendation of the Treasury for a $225,000,000 tax cut would have to be reduced and he outlined the following revised program which the department is prepared to submit next Tuesday before the Senate Finance committee when that body meets behind closed doors to consider $290,000,000 reduction bill passed by the House.

"A reduction of the corporation income tax, some additional measure of relief to the smaller corporations, a modified revision of the income tax rates applicable to the middle brackets and the repeal of the federal estate tax."

This revised program, looking to the scaling down of the proposed tax cut of $200,000,000 or less, is not going to have very smooth sailing in the Senate Finance Committee, in the opinion of the Democratic members, even though the Republican independents who hold the balance of power, are in favor of applying the surplus to reducing the public debt.

THE GARRICK PLAYERS of Lake Forest College (Lake Forest, Ill.) will present "TOMMY" a new American comedy in three acts in this Theatre on Thursday, April 5.

Everyone who saw The Garrick Players here last year will remember what an excellent company of actors they are and what an entertaining and professional performance they gave. This season has been the most successful in the history of their 26 years of play producing. As in former years they carry all their scenery and properties.
